

Remuneration and Nomination Committee Activity Report FY18

FY 2018

According to the Articles of Incorporation, 12.5 and 12.7, the Board of Directors shall establish an audit committee (the "Audit Committee") and a nomination and remuneration committee (the "Remuneration and Nomination Committee") and may establish and delegate part of its powers to one or more other committees, in order to conduct certain tasks and functions expressly delegated to such committees. The committees will examine specific topics chosen by the Board of Directors and report on them to the Board of Directors. Decision-making remains the collective responsibility of the Board of Directors and the committee may only make suggestions to the Board of Directors.

The main purpose of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is to assist the Board of Directors, via proposal of appointment and/or removal of Directors, review of the remuneration Policy of the Company, to make proposals, together with the CEO, on the individual remuneration of Directors, and to provide advice on any benefit or incentive schemes.

1. Roles and Responsibilities

According to the Articles of Association 12.7, the Company Internal Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors, article 10.4 to 10.6, and the Remuneration and Nomination Terms of Reference, the role of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is:

The Committee shall:

- With respect to Remuneration:

- a) Determine and agree with the Board the policy for the remuneration of the Company's Directors.
- b) Determine the total individual remuneration package of the Chair, each executive director, and in aggregate senior management, including bonuses, share-based incentive awards and other elements of their remuneration;
- c) Be responsible for establishing the selection criteria, relating to selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee;
- d) Approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance-related pay schemes operated by the Company and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes;
- e) Review the design of all share incentive plans for approval, where required, by the Board and/or shareholders.

- With respect to Nominations

The Committee shall:

- a) Regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, experience, independence, knowledge, and diversity, including gender) of the Board and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any changes that are deemed necessary.
- b) Keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace.

FY 2018

- With respect to Appointments to the Board

The Committee shall assess the qualifications, background knowledge and experience necessary to sit on the Board of Directors, defining, accordingly, the duties and qualifications required of the candidates to fill each vacancy, and decide the time and dedication necessary for them to properly perform their duties. The Chair may request the Remuneration and Nomination Committee to consider possible candidates to fill vacancies for the position of director, provided that the Remuneration and Nomination Committee may as well independently search for and consider alternative candidates for such position. Such Directors are, for the avoidance of doubt, to be appointed upon a decision of the Shareholders.

To examine or organize, in the manner it deems appropriate, the succession of the Chair and CEO and, if appropriate, make proposals to the Board of Directors for such succession to take place in an orderly and well-planned manner.

- With Respect to Induction and Training

The Committee shall ensure that all new directors undertake an appropriate induction program to ensure that they are fully informed about strategic and commercial issues affecting the Company and the markets in which it operates as well as their duties and responsibilities as a director, and consider any training requirements for the Board as a whole.

- With Respect to conflicts of interest

The Committee shall:

- a) Before appointment of a director, require the proposed appointee to disclose any other business interests that may result in a conflict of interest and to report any future business interests that could result in a conflict of interest;
- b) Consider and, if appropriate, authorize situational conflicts of interest of directors and potential directors;

- With Respect to Board evaluation

The Committee shall:

- a) Assist the Chair of the Board with the implementation of an annual evaluation process.
- b) Review the results of the Board performance evaluation process that relate to the composition of the Board;
- c) Ensure that evaluation of the Board is externally facilitated at least every three years;

2. Composition:

According to the Articles and the Internal Rules of Procedure, 10.4, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) members initially comprised of (i) one (1) Director nominated for appointment to the Board of Directors by the Luxgoal 3 Group or Ardian Group and (ii) two (2) independent Directors. The members of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall all be non-executive Directors, the majority of who shall be independent Directors. The Chair of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall be selected from among its members and shall be an independent Director.

FY 2018

As of 31st March 2018, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is formed by three members.
